

Support Worker

About the Role

We seek dedicated and compassionate support workers to assist individuals with disabilities, particularly those from the LGBTQ community, in achieving their NDIS goals. This role involves providing assistance with daily tasks, creating a consistent routine and encouraging participation in the community.

What We Offer

- Benefits for Employees
- Therapy for Emotional Health
- Reduced prices for Fitness Centre Memberships
- Flexible Work Arrangement
- Opportunities for career growth and improvement of skills.

Key Responsibilities

- Assist LGBTQ individuals in reaching their NDIS goals and handling their everyday responsibilities.
- Help to make daily tasks easier and create a consistent routine.
- Plan and participate in community focused activities.
- Transport people to their scheduled appointments and events.
- Create an inventive approach to connect with the distinct requirements of every participant.

Skills and Experience

What You'll Need:

- Permission granted to work in Australia
- A valid driver's licence and a reliable vehicle
- Employee Screening Evaluation
- Certification for the NDIS Safeguard Commission Module
- Certification III, IV or Diploma in Individual Support or Mental Health
- Verification of Child Safety

What's Nice to Have:

- I have worked with individuals from the LGBTQ community who have disabilities and show challenging behaviours.
- A year of relevant work experience

About Example Company

Our organisation is a certified provider focused on linking dedicated support workers with individuals based on their skills, preferences and interests. We aim to champion the rights of individuals with disabilities and support them in achieving fulfilling lives.

Location and Work Environment

Australia

Award Classification

Determine the award classification with Award Matcher

How to Apply

1. Please submit your resume accompanied by a cover letter to the specified email address.
2. Prepare to discuss your experiences and how you can contribute positively to our team.
3. Only those candidates who have made it to the shortlist will be informed.